

Jesus Blesses the Children

The greatest thing about the story of Jesus blessing the children is remembering that we're ALL God's children! Yes, even your parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, cousins, teachers, neighbors, bus drivers, babysitters, and anyone else you could imagine. Use the space below to draw a picture of the people you know that are in God's family. How many can you fit? When you're done, write a prayer underneath the picture asking God to take care of all his children – those you know and those you don't.

Dear God, _____

_____ Amen.
