The Widow's Offering

Pre-Reader

TODAY'S THEME IS APPEARANCES.

Why do we share with others?

Jesus was watching for people to share nicely. Circle the things you can share with others.

The widow gave all her money—two coins!

See Jesus smiling? He was happy with what the widow gave. Put the letters in order to see how much we all should give.

Wow, that takes trust!

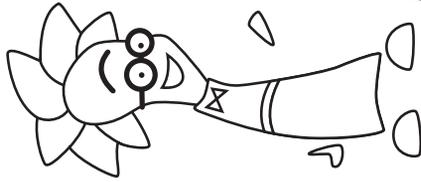

I might worry about giving it all away.

Draw a stained glass window.

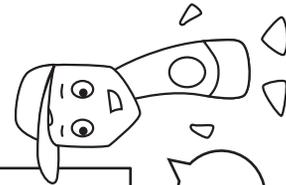

Draw one that's in your worship space or make up your own.

Time for a church architecture lesson! Stained glass has been used in churches since the 600s.

Stained glass windows are kind of like pictures in a book. They help tell a story!

The Widow's Offering

TODAY'S THEME IS APPEARANCES.

Sometimes it is hard to share.

Jesus saw who shared from all they had. Above the offering plate list some of your belongings that you could share better with others.

A widow came in and put in two copper coins.

On the first coin, write or draw what that you could give to the church now.

On the other coin, write or draw what you would like to give in the future.

Her offering seemed small,
but it was actually very big.
